Wax Museum

Tokyo Tower Wax Museum opened in 1970. Wax figures exhibited were imported directly from the Workshop in London, where they were made. Also added are the figures of great personages who "decorated the 20th century" and played an important role in and out of our country.

Screen Lounge THANK

Newly opened café lounge where you can enjoy images projected onto a 16 meters super screen and music!

Gallery DeLux

"Hologram", a 3-D picture created by the same technology that won its creator the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1971. Figures exhibited in this gallery look as if they are actually there or as if they are moving. Their appearance depends on the eyes of the beholder.

Tokyo souvenir shop Town

Seventeen old and reputed shops that have been continuously selling Tokyo souvenirs in the Tokyo Tower were gathered in one place and remodeled. They are resurrected here!

TOKIO 333 (souvenir shop)

Displayed in the "San Rio Shop" in this shop are 500 kinds of netsukes (ornamental buttons for suspending a pouch) with a figurine of local "Hello Kitty" and Faster Mascots. Tokyo Tower Sablés and "Greater Tokyo Surprise Dango" are also very popular among our visitors.

Tower Restaurant

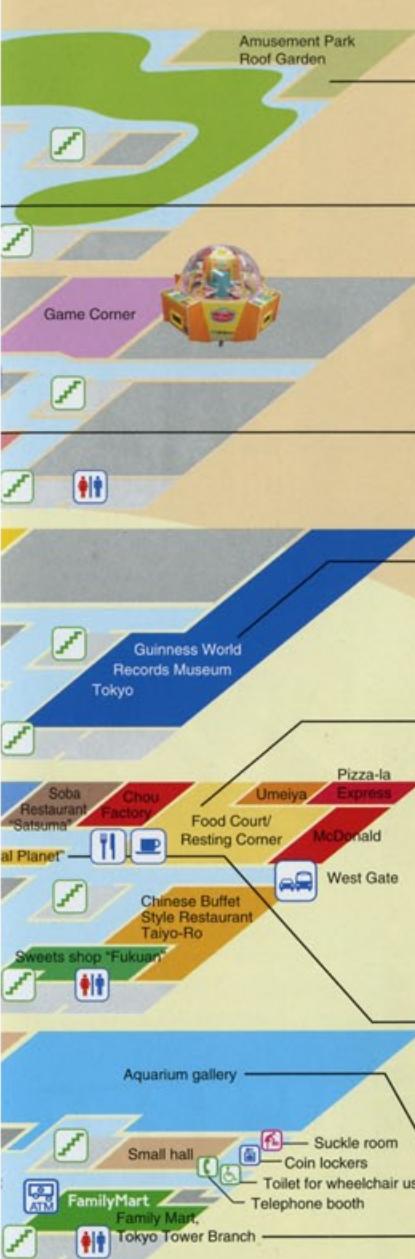

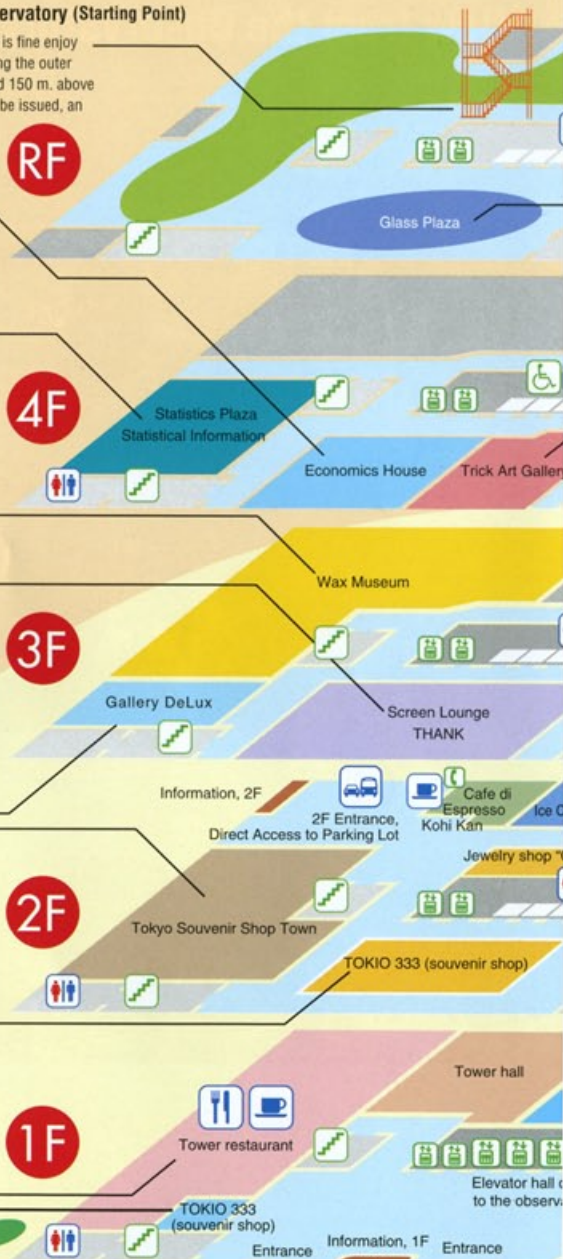

This is an old and renowned restaurant that can serve four groups of up to the 400 persons. Of course, individual guests are also welcome. Enjoy a hearty meal in this restaurant where they still preserve the old atmosphere.

TOKIO 333 (souvenir shop)

Marion Crepes

These are hand-made crêpes fresh from the oven. The crêpe shop is waiting for you with more than 80 kinds of sweets in their menus such as "Custard Chocolate Special" and the very popular "Banana Chocolate Fresh Cream" containing home-made custard.

Amusement Park

After all the renewal work, Tokyo Tower has kept its old and familiar roof garden and amusement park intact. Why not enjoy yourselves playing here in the park, remembering all those happy old days?

Sunday Performers in the Glass Plaza and the Main Observatory!

On Sundays, merry performances by jugglers and street performers are seen in the Glass Plaza in the Roof Garden and in the Event Space in the Main Observatory. For details, please visit the Tokyo Tower Home Page: <http://www.tokyotower.co.jp>

8 Café La Tour

In the Observatory Coffee Shop "Café La Tour", you can enjoy your meal while enjoying the view from a height of 145 m above the ground.

View from the Observatory

Tokyo Tower is proud to be the highest self-supporting steel tower in the world ever since its opening in 1958. Take a look at the living Tokyo changing with the progress of the world from the Main Observatory!

A 360° panorama, look and feel the big city Tokyo, the Observatory.

Special Observatory at Night

An SF-like spatial production was added to the interior of the Special Observatory, making visitors feel like they were floating and walking in the space of the future and the universe. In particular, at night the LEDs (light emitting diodes) inlaid under the windows give glimmering light in three colors blue, red and green, and together with the audio effect, you can enjoy the night view under your eyes in a dramatic atmosphere full of fantasy.

Concept is "Night scene and music".

Every week, various sorts of regular events are produced now on the specially set up stage on the first floor of the Main Observatory, Club 333.

On Wednesday and Thursday nights, live shows by the top artists well fit for the night scene give their hot performance. And there is DJ time on Friday nights, in which they broadcast the tunes requested by you "on air" to all the Observatories.

Collaboration between Tokyo's night scene and music...
Feast your eyes on the night scene without thinking anything...
And in a café by the stage
Relaxing at leisure...you will see
Luxurious space produces luxurious time.
